DECLARATION FOR PARENTS / GUARDIANS

In light of the issues regarding the current fee structure for the academic session 2024-2025 and the genuine concerns of our parents and guardians, the school's management has firmly decided to amend the fee to reflect the reduction in the fee structure to reassure our parents of our school's as well as our management's continued commitment towards them.

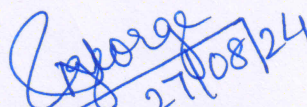

The break-up of the new fee structure for all classes will be applicable with immediate effect and shall be as listed on the school's official website (https://www.cccssj.in/fee_structure.php) and also shall be available in the respective class groups as well as in the school office. All queries regarding the same will be promptly addressed by the office staff.

Those parents / guardians who have paid the fees for the months leading till August 2024, to them we commit that the difference amount as per the amended fee structure shall be adjusted in the coming month of September 2024. The details can be obtained from the fee counter at the school.

Those parents / guardians who have paid the fees for the entire academic year of 2024-2025 in advance, we request you to kindly provide an application in the school office clearly mentioning the name in which the cheque is to be issued, the name of the student, class and section and finally the total amount paid, so that we can process your refund of the excess amount.

We thank all our parents and guardians for being incredibly supportive during these difficult times. We assure you that we shall continue to strive towards the best interest of our parents and students in the years to come.
